Morning Prayers for Your Grandchildren

Thank you, Lord, for this day before us, and thank you especially for my grandchildren. I am grateful that you care about each one of these precious children. Please protect them from harm today. Let them have the food, shelter and clothes that they need and caring adults in their lives who teach them the truth.

Lord, I pray that my grandkids will know you and love you and grow into the boys and girls you made them to be. Jesus, as my grandchildren leave the house for their activities today, let your light shine through them to everyone around them. I also ask you to protect each one from evil and bring them home safely at the end of the day. Amen.

Lord thank you for your great love for my family and your great faithfulness to us. May we never take your mercy and compassion for granted.

Lord, again this morning, I ask that you guide my grandchildren away from danger and lead them in the ways they should go. Let them make good choices today. Help them to grow spiritually strong. Help them to show your kindness and compassion in words and actions in all their relationships - to their friends, classmates, teachers, and family. Amen.

Good morning Lord. I am grateful to you for the chance of another day. Thank you for keeping me safe last night and for your breath in my lungs this morning. Most especially, thank you for my children and grandchildren. I love them so much and I am grateful for each one in my family.

Lord, I pray for the children of this new generation including grandchildren's names. God they are your children! Your generation! Let this be a day where they learn more about you. Let them always know deep in their soul that are your chosen children.

Please give them lots of chances today to see you at work. I pray they will be like spring seedlings – always growing towards your light.

I pray that your spirit will be a hedge of protection around them, physically and emotionally. Please walk with them through every step they take today. Surround them with honest, caring and moral adults who will protect these kids and influence them in the right ways.

Please protect them from seeing things they shouldn't see and hearing things they shouldn't hear. I pray that no plans of the enemy would prosper against any of these children. Thank you, Lord, for being our caring father. Amen.

Morning Prayers for Your Grandchildren

Lord God, It is such a comfort to know that everyone on the earth belongs to you including my family and me. You made us all and have made a path of salvation for all who ask. God I pray that grandchild's name will be able to stand in your holy place. That they will have clean hands and a pure heart. That they won't trust in idols or be deceived by false gods.

Please bless them Lord and deliver them from evil. Guard their spirits and don't let them believe any lies. Let them be part of this new generation that seeks you! Amen.

Lord you are our light and salvation. One thing I ask today, and this main thing I seek, is that my family and I may live permanently in your house all the days of our lives. Teach us your ways Lord, and lead us in a straight path. Show us what it means to live in partnership with you today.

Thank you for the day you have given us today. Please help us not to waste it on unimportant things. Let my grandchildren desire to know you more and grow to be leaders in your kingdom. Amen.
